

I am against any modifications of this law. When I am at home after a hard day's work, I do not want my quality time with my family interrupted by sales phone calls. This is an invasion of my privacy. If it is a company that I have conducted business with in the past, they should mail or email me.